PHARMANIAGA RESPONSE TO MERCY MALAYSIA'S MEDICAL REQUEST - 2ND MISSION FOR IRAN

Kuala Lumpur: Pharmaniaga on Friday, sent another RM10,000.00 worth of medical supplies to Kerman, Iran in aid of the earthquake victims in response to MERCY Malaysia's appeal for medical supplies. The medical supplies which includes two units of heavy duty nebulizer was transported Kerman by MERCY's second medical mission team led by Dr. Ahmad Faizal Mohd Perdaus on Saturday.

This is Pharmaniaga's second contribution to MERCY Malaysia's mission to Iran. Last week, Pharmaniaga responded promptly in supplying RM17,000.00 worth of products to an emergency medical supply request that was received on the same morning that 1st medical mission team was leaving for Kerman, Iran. Products that were sent were mainly anaesthetic as requested by Mercy Malaysia's team leader Dr Dilshaad Ali Abas Ali.
